LANGUAGE PROGRAM MANAGEMENT AND INSTITUTIONAL SERVICE (selected)

Fall 2018-2020 Language Studies Program Coordinator, MIIS. I coordinated 13 full-time language faculty offering 7 regular languages (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Japanese, Russian, Spanish) and many other “Non-regular” languages (Darsi, Farsi, Pashtun, etc.). I advised many MIIS students for their language plan and issues. I was also part of the admissions process as far as language education, preparation and testing were concerned. I helped devise, systemize and share language policies (language waiver, language specialization, transfer of language credits, etc.). I also worked across the university with Records, the Admissions office, the Recruiting office, and degree programs for many language related issues and initiatives.

2001-2020 Coordinator, French and Francophone Studies Program, MIIS
I handle all practical matters related to: French language testing, maintenance on online resources and testing material, development of curriculum, assessment and placement of French language students (about 75 each year out of our total enrollment of c. 750 students), representation and promotion of French at MIIS and in the community, connection and projects with the AATF, advising, coordination of French faculty, and hiring of adjunct French faculty.

RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT GRANTS

Grants:

Spring 2018: PI for a One Midd grant to explore LS teaching across campuses and IC for LS across campuses. My project was funded, which led to the October 11-12: visit by Middlebury College Dr. Armelle Crouziers-Inglethon at MIIS to discuss LS across both campuses, LS and IC at MIDD and to explore our book (on contemporary France) and our projected activities for the 2019 AATF conference (a pre-conference workshop on IC for French studies, notably). April 2019: I reciprocated the visit to MIDD VT (LS, CLTR, psychology department) on the same projects in 2019

Fall 2017: Prof Avineri and I cowrote an ambitious Fund for Innovation grant to explore / map the views and practices on IC at MIIS to raise awareness across our Institute and help professionalize our practices and deepen the collaboration with MIDD VT. Unfortunately, this major project was not funded. We still need to do it.

2017: October: One Midd retreat on intercultural competence with about 8 MIIS and 8 MIDD faculty, int'l campus directors and summer program dean. Based on a OneMidd grant that I co-wrote with prof. Avineri.

2016: OneMidd retreat over 2 days at Asilomar on (5 MIIS faculty, 5 MIDD faculty and program managers) on "Mindfulness and Education." Based on a OneMidd grant that I co-wrote with Prof. Johnson

2015: I spearheaded a Fund for Innovation grant request about "Integrative Leadership for Social Change." I worked closely with: Bob Cole, Patricia Szaz, Julie Johnson, Alfredo Ortiz, Jackie Harmer, and also consulted Amy McGill, Sheila Cameron and Pres. Ron Leibowitz. I worked intensively on the project in Feb-March 2015, but in the end our proposal was not funded.

2016: OneMidd retreat over 2 days at Asilomar on (5 MIIS faculty, 5 MIDD faculty and program managers) on "Mindfulness and Education." Based on a OneMidd grant that I co-wrote with Prof. Johnson
